

NVC FUND BANK

Transaction Settlement Explainer

Settlement Overview

Transaction settlement is the process of finalizing financial transactions between parties. NVC Fund Bank operates a sophisticated settlement infrastructure that handles multiple currencies, payment methods, and regulatory jurisdictions.

Settlement Cycles

Different transaction types follow specific settlement cycles based on payment method, currency, and regulatory requirements. Real-time settlement is available for internal transfers and select correspondent banking relationships.